At its 3013th meeting, on 11 October 1991, the Security Council resumed its consideration of the item, having before it the report by the Secretary-General on his mission of good offices in Cyprus (S/23121).

The President drew attention to the text of the draft resolution contained in document S/23137, which had been prepared in the course of the Security Council's consultations.

The President also drew attention to a technical correction to be made to the provisional draft resolution contained in document S/23137, whereby, in operative paragraph 3, the words "and non-alignment of the Republic of Cyprus" should be followed by a semicolon instead of a comma.

The Security Council then proceeded to vote on the draft resolution (S/23137), and adopted it unanimously as resolution 716 (1991).

Resolution 716 (1991) reads as follows:

The Security Council,

Having considered the report of the Secretary-General of 8 October 1991 on his mission of good offices in Cyprus, 1/

1/ S/23121.

Noting with satisfaction the progress made in preparing a set of ideas as the basis for arriving at an agreed overall framework agreement on Cyprus,

Noting with concern the difficulties encountered in completing this work,

Regretting that it was not possible to convene the high-level international meeting foreseen in the statement by the President of the Security Council of 28 June 1991, 2/

1. Commends the Secretary-General for his efforts during the past few months and endorses his report and observations;

2. Reaffirms its previous resolutions on Cyprus;

3. Reaffirms its position on the Cyprus question, expressed most recently in resolution 649 (1990) and in line with the 1977 and 1979 high-level agreements between the parties in Cyprus, that the fundamental principles of a Cyprus settlement are the sovereignty, independence, territorial integrity and non-alignment of the Republic of Cyprus; the exclusion of union in whole or in part with any other country and any form of partition or secession; and the establishment of a new constitutional arrangement for Cyprus that would ensure the well-being and security of the Greek Cypriot and Turkish Cypriot communities in a bi-communal and bi-zonal federation;

4. Reaffirms that its position on the solution to the Cyprus problem is based on one State of Cyprus comprising two politically equal communities as defined by the Secretary-General in the eleventh paragraph of annex I to his report dated 8 March 1990; 3/

5. Calls upon the parties to adhere fully to these principles and to negotiate within the framework of them without introducing concepts that are at variance with them;

6. Reaffirms that the Secretary-General's mission of good offices is with the two communities whose participation in the process is on an equal footing;

7. Endorses the Secretary-General's intention to resume discussions in early November with the two parties in Cyprus and Greece and Turkey to complete the set of ideas on an overall framework agreement;

2/ S/22744.

3/ S/21183.

8. Considers that convening a high-level international meeting chaired by the Secretary-General in which the two communities and Greece and Turkey would participate represents an effective mechanism for concluding an overall framework agreement on Cyprus;

9. Requests the leaders of the two communities and Greece and Turkey to cooperate fully with the Secretary-General and his representatives so that the high-level international meeting can be convened before the end of this year;

10. Requests the Secretary-General to report to the Security Council in November 1991 whether sufficient progress has been made to convene the high-level international meeting and, should conditions not be ripe, to convey to the Council the set of ideas as they will have evolved by that time with his assessment of the situation.

SUMMARY STATEMENT BY THE SECRETARY-GENERAL ON MATTERS OF WHICH THE SECURITY COUNCIL IS SEIZED AND ON THE STAGE REACHED IN THEIR CONSIDERATION

Addendum

Pursuant to rule 11 of the provisional rules of procedure of the Security Council, the Secretary-General is submitting the following summary statement.

The list of items of which the Security Council is seized is contained in documents S/22110 of 28 January 1991, S/22110/Add.3 of 1 February 1991, S/22110/Add.13 of 25 April 1991, S/22110/Add.21 of 22 July 1991, S/22110/Add.38 of 9 October 1991 and S/22110/Add.39 of 22 October 1991.

During the week ending 19 October 1991, the Security Council took action on the following item:

The situation in Cambodia (see S/21100/Add.37)

At its 3014th meeting, on 16 October 1991, the Security Council resumed its consideration of the item, having before it the report by the Secretary-General on Cambodia (S/23097 and Add.1), that had been prepared in the light of the report of the survey mission, for the purpose of recommending to the Security Council that it authorize the establishment of a United Nations Advance Mission in Cambodia (UNAMIC), which would assume its functions as soon as the Agreement on a Comprehensive Political Settlement of the Cambodia Conflict was signed.

The President drew attention to the text of the draft resolution (S/23145), which had been prepared in the course of the Council's consultations.

The Security Council then voted on the draft resolution and adopted it unanimously as resolution 717 (1991).

Resolution 717 (1991) reads as follows:

The Security Council,

Recalling its resolution 668 (1990) of 20 September 1990, in which it endorsed the framework for a comprehensive political settlement of the Cambodia conflict of 28 August 1990, 1/

Taking note of the draft agreements for a comprehensive political settlement of the Cambodia conflict, 2/

Welcoming the very significant progress made, on the basis of those draft agreements, towards a comprehensive political settlement which would enable the Cambodian people to exercise its inalienable right to self-determination through free and fair elections organized and conducted by the United Nations,

Welcoming in particular the election of His Royal Highness Samdech Norodom Sihanouk as the Chairman of the Supreme National Council of Cambodia,

Noting with satisfaction the other decisions taken by the Supreme National Council of Cambodia, concerning in particular the implementation of a voluntary cease-fire and the renunciation of foreign military assistance, and underlining the need for the full cooperation of the Cambodian parties,

Considering that such progress has opened the way to an early reconvening of the Paris Conference on Cambodia at ministerial level and the signing of the agreements for a comprehensive political settlement based on the framework document of 28 August 1990 and welcoming the preparations being made by the co-chairmen of the Paris Conference on Cambodia in that regard,

Convinced that such a comprehensive political settlement can offer at last a peaceful, just and durable solution to the Cambodia conflict,

Taking note of the request by His Royal Highness Samdech Norodom Sihanouk, Chairman of the Supreme National Council of Cambodia, for United Nations personnel to be sent to Cambodia at the earliest possible moment, 3/

1/ See S/21689.

2/ See S/22059.

3/ See S/23066.

Underlining the necessity of a United Nations presence in Cambodia immediately after the signing of the agreements for a comprehensive political settlement, pending the implementation of the arrangements set out in those agreements,

Having considered, to this end, the report of the Secretary-General proposing the establishment of a United Nations Advance Mission in Cambodia, 4/

1. Approves the report of the Secretary-General; 4/

2. Decides to establish, under its authority, a United Nations Advance Mission in Cambodia immediately after the signing of the agreements for a comprehensive political settlement and in accordance with the report of the Secretary-General, 4/ with members of the mission to be sent to Cambodia immediately after the signing;

3. Calls upon the Supreme National Council of Cambodia, and the Cambodian parties for their part, to cooperate fully with the United Nations Advance Mission in Cambodia and with the preparations for the implementation of the arrangements set out in the agreements for a comprehensive political settlement;

4. Welcomes the proposal of the co-chairmen of the Paris Conference on Cambodia to reconvene the Conference at an early date at ministerial level to sign the agreements for a comprehensive political settlement of the Cambodia conflict;

5. Requests the Secretary-General to report to the Security Council by 15 November 1991 on the implementation of the present resolution, and to keep the Council fully informed of further developments.

The situation in Cambodia (see S/21100/Add.37 and S/22110/Add.41)

At its 3015th meeting, on 31 October 1991, the Security Council resumed its consideration of the item, having before it the advance copy of the text of a letter dated 30 October 1991 from the representatives of France and Indonesia to the United Nations addressed to the Secretary-General, in their capacity as representatives of the Co-Presidents of the Paris Conference on Cambodia, transmitting the texts of the agreements signed in Paris on 23 October 1991 by the States participating in the Paris Conference on Cambodia (S/23177) and a note by the Secretary-General on Cambodia (S/23179).

The President drew attention to the text of a draft resolution contained in document S/23180, which had been prepared in the course of the Council's consultations.

The Security Council then voted on draft resolution S/23180 and adopted it unanimously as resolution 718 (1991).

Resolution 718 (1991) reads as follows:

The Security Council,

Recalling its resolutions 668 (1990) of 20 September 1990 and 717 (1991) of 16 October 1991,

Welcoming the meeting in Paris, on 23 October 1991, of the Paris Conference on Cambodia (PCC) at ministerial level, at which the agreements on a comprehensive political settlement of the Cambodia conflict were signed,

Having considered the agreements on a comprehensive political settlement of the Cambodia conflict (S/23177),

Noting that those agreements provide inter alia for the designation of a Special Representative of the Secretary-General and the establishment of a United Nations Transitional Authority in Cambodia (UNTAC),

Noting further that it is the intention of the Secretary-General to send a survey mission to Cambodia as soon as possible to prepare a plan for implementing the mandate envisaged in the agreements, for submission to the Security Council,

Underlining the necessity for the full cooperation of the Supreme National Council of Cambodia, and all Cambodians for their part, in the implementation of the agreements,

1. Expresses its full support for the agreements on a comprehensive political settlement of the Cambodia conflict, signed in Paris on 23 October 1991 (S/23177);

2. Authorizes the Secretary-General to designate a Special Representative for Cambodia to act on his behalf;

3. Welcomes the intention of the Secretary-General to send a survey mission to Cambodia as soon as possible to prepare a plan for implementing the mandate envisaged in the agreements;

4. Requests the Secretary-General to submit at the earliest possible date a report containing his implementation plan, including in particular a detailed estimate of the cost of UNTAC, on the understanding that this report would be the basis on which the Council would authorize the establishment of UNTAC, the budget of UNTAC to be subsequently considered and approved in accordance with the provisions of Article 17 of the Charter of the United Nations;

5. Calls upon all Cambodian parties to comply fully with the cease-fire that entered into force at the time of the signature of the agreements;

6. Calls upon the Supreme National Council of Cambodia, and all Cambodians for their part, to cooperate fully with the United Nations in the implementation of the agreements on a comprehensive political settlement of the Cambodia conflict.
